

Harassment may involve: physical or verbal harassment, harassment relating to people's sex, disability, race, religion, sexual orientation or bullying.

The University condemns harassment as an unacceptable form of behaviour, and has a service to help people (staff and students) who think that they are being harassed in any way.

You can either talk to the advisers appointed by your college, faculty or department, listed below, or ring the University's confidential Harassment Hotline, (2)70760, or email harassment.line@admin.ox.ac.uk and ask for referral to someone outside the college, department or faculty. The OUSU Student Advice Service can also provide confidential advice and support to students and can be contacted on (2)88450/1 or by emailing advice@ousu.org.

Harassment advisers are there to listen and advise. Any further action will be your choice.

Further advice on dealing with harassment, including the full Code of Practice, is on www.admin.ox.ac.uk/eop/har. A printed copy is also available from the Equality and Diversity Unit by telephoning (2)89825.
